IMMEDIATE OPPORTUNITIES FOR TEACHING ARTISTS!

YOU must be passionate about creating, producing, and facilitating learning experiences that use poetry, performance, and Hip Hop as a foundation.

many ways to be involved.

Be a guest artist at one of our Weekly Word Workshops: 2-hour in-depth sessions with high school writers who meet every Thursday afternoon from 4-6p. January through April.

Be a teaching artist for a High School + Middle School residencies: 2-5 session residencies with 5th-12th graders working in collaboration with existing Language Arts teachers.

Be a featured performance for our special open mic sessions and Citywide Jams!

The Word is a transformative literary arts program for New Haven young people. The Word partners experienced teaching poets, award-winning spoken-word artists, and emcees with creative students, teachers, and administrators across the city to equip youth to become stronger poets and culture creators.